

“We are committed to helping our clients make safety not only a top priority, but also a natural part of their day-to-day operations. “Where Safety Works” is more than an expression for us—it’s our goal for every program we develop for every client. And we always operate in an ethical manner within the parameters of all governing regulations and your corporate procedures. These are the values that define Safeway Management Group and will never be compromised.”

– Michael Franek, President
